N°. 310

WEDNESDAY, April 3, 1751.

PARIS, November 16.

SOME private Letters from Toulon, say, that including the Ships upon the Stocks, which will be very speedily finished, they have twenty-seven Men of War in that Harbour. Abundance of People present themselves daily at the proper Sea Ports, in order to be sent to our Plantations in America. An Account has been transmitted to England of the Expence of transporting the Garrison from Louisburg to Nova Scotia, which amounts to 156,690 Livres.

Genoa, November 28. Prodigious Damages have been caused by the violent Hurricanes we have had for this Week past. We already reckon upwards of twenty Vessels which have perished on the Western Coast of this State, exclusive of those that have been lost at Sea, of which we expect dreadful Accounts.

Paris, November 30. The King has ordered all the Regiments of his Troops to be completed by the Month of March. Letters from Brest and Rochfort advise, that twelve Merchant Ships are sailed from those Ports for the Coast of Guiney, which are convoyed by two Men of War. It is assured, that they have on board 250 Pieces of Cannon, which are to be mounted in the Ports and Establishments which the French have on those Parts.

Dantzick, December 7. Within these fifteen Days many Danish and Dutch Ships, as well as some belonging to the Hanse Towns, have been lost in the Baltic.

Paris, December 7. M. de Senac the King's Physician, who went to Chambord, to visit Marshal Saxe during his Illness, found that his Fever was of so malignant a Nature, that it was impossible to save him. As soon as the Marshal perceived him, he fixed looking upon him affectionately. 'My friend, (said he) you here see me come to the End of a pleasing Dream, and such is the Object of human Greatness; it is nothing more than an Illusion.' The Marshal lived at Chambord, after the Peace, like a foreign Prince, having his Regiments of Dragoons and Hussars, and his Guards. He considerably augmented and beautified that Castle, having erected Stables and Barracks to be there, and an Hospital for the sick. He also caused a Castle to be built, the Decoration whereof cost more than 200 Livres. The Company of Players was composed of excellent Actors and Actresses, and he had in his Kitchen also the Cooks, &c. The single Entertainment which he gave Mademoiselle de Seni, is said to have cost 400000 Livres. Though the Marshal was naturally full of Vivacity, he was often put in a Flutter whilst at the Head of the Army. He one Day told, that the Enemy were but a League off, he answered, 'We must then approach them, in order to oblige them to retire.' Another Time he told the General Officers, 'Gentlemen, I have just been informed, that the Army is to hold a Council of War at seven this Evening; for my part, I shall go about the same Time to the Play, and advise you to do so too.' He always had his Plan of Operations in his Head, and never communicated them to any but the King.

Rome, December 16. We have received Intelligence, that the Duke of Deux Ponts, who has absolutely renounced the Crown of Sweden for himself and his Posterity, by becoming a Roman Catholic, is going to Rome to get a Pardon for the Fact having done so.

Frankfort, December 20. We have received Advice, that in the Night between the 11th and 12th Instant, a Fire broke out at Nurtingen, a small Town in the Duchy of Wirtemberg, which burnt with great Violence for near 24 Hours, during which Time it consumed upwards of 160 Houses, besides the Hospital. The Duke of Wirtemberg no sooner heard of it, than he went in Person, and did all in his Power to stop it's Progress; and when the Fire was got under, he caused several Sums of Money, and a great Quantity of Provisions, &c. to be distributed among the unhappy Sufferers.

Brest, December 22. Most People are of Opinion, that the Squadron of Men of War, which has been for some Time ready to sail from this Port is design'd for America, and is at the same Time to transport to our Colonies there 3 or 4000 Volunteers, who are arrived here from the several Provinces of the Kingdom. The People in this Port work with all possible Diligence, in order to compleat another Squadron of five Ships of the Line, which, it is said, are to sail for Toulon, to put our Naval Forces in the Mediterranean in a respectable Condition.

Hamburg, in Dithmarsh, Nov. 6. It is said, that there is a Person at some Place in Germany, who pretends to be the legitimate Son of the late Charles XII. King of Sweden, by a Woman of mean Birth, whom he says, the King married. It is even assured, that this Adventurer has wrote to King Stanislaus, and offered, upon certain Conditions, to yield him his Pretensions to the Crown of Sweden. In this Letter, he writes, that he was born in the Year that the Battle of Pultowa was fought, viz. 1707; that the King his Father, who loved him very much, kept him with him till he was preparing to march to Moscovy to dethrone the late Czar, and that then he left the Care of his Education to a Jew in Wallachia, who brought him up.

LONDON.

October 18. By the foreign Gazettes we find, that though the Convention with Spain was signed so early as the 14th of September, yet most of the foreign Ministers at Madrid knew nothing of it till the 12th of October. The following are the principal Articles of it, as published in the said Gazettes.

1. The King of Spain engages to pay to the South Sea Company, within the Space of three Months, the Sum of 100,000 Pounds Sterling, by Way of Indemnification, as well for the Non-execution of the Assiento Treaty of the 13th of March 1713, as to make them Amends for the four Years in which they did not send their annual Ships.

2. As to the Trade and Navigation of the English in the Ports of the King of Spain's Dominions, the Treaties of 1667 and 1670, that of Utrecht of the Year 1731, the 1st, 4th, 5th, and 9th Articles of the Treaty of 1715, and that of 1721, shall be punctually observed and executed.

3. In Consequence of these Dispositions, the English Ships that may come to trade in the Ports of his Catholic Majesty, shall pay no other Duties for the Goods they export or import, than what they paid in the Reign of Charles the Second, of Spain.

4. Moreover, the Subjects of Great Britain shall pay in the Places where they come to traffic, only the same Duties as are laid on the Subjects of his Catholic Majesty, who means, that the English shall be treated in his Dominions, on the same Footing as the Nation the most favoured.

5. And lastly that they shall continue to enjoy the Liberty of taking Salt in the Island of Tortuga, possessed by the Spaniards.

We don't find a Word about cutting Logwood in the Bay of Campeachy, nor concerning a Free Navigation without Search or Visit on the High Seas in the West-Indies. However they observe, that the Convention has given great Satisfaction at Hanover, and also to the South Sea Company."

Oct. 25. On Sunday last a melancholy Accident happened to a young Lady of Fortune, about 13 Years of Age, at an eminent minent boarding School in this City. The Lady had an Inflamation in one of her Eyes, for which an Apothecary was apply'd to, who order'd two Bottles, one to anoint the Part inflam'd, and the other a Dose to be taken inwardly: But by mistake, the one which was to be apply'd outwardly, she took inwardly, which was of such a Nature, that it immediately flung her into violent Convulsions, which held her for two Hours, when she expir'd in most dreadful Agonies, to the great Grief of her inconsolable Parents, of every one who knew her.

We hear that the Papers of a Gentleman of distinguished Character in this City have been seized by his Majesty's Messengers, on Suspicion of a treasonable Correspondence.

November 27. We are informed, that last Sunday Evening came Advice, that Count Saxe, natural Son of the late King of Poland, Marshal of France, and one of the Candidates for the Duchy of Courland, died at Chambord last Tuesday in the 55th Year of his Age.

St. James's, December 6. His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland.

December 11. By Letters from Cologne there is Advice, that the Small-Pox has for some Time past been very rife in that City, and they reckon that 1130 have died, between 16 and 18 Years old, from the 18 of September to the 11th of December.

On Sunday came an Account, that a large Ship, Name unknown, was cast away near Penstance. She had Port-Holes for thirty-six Guns, and a great Quantity of Cotton came on shore, it was supposed she came from the West Indies.

KINGSTON, in Jamaica, January 19.

On Wednesday, between the Hours of Twelve and One in the Morning, was felt in this Town, a very severe Shock of an Earthquake, which continued very near the Space of one Minute, it was accompanied with a loud Noise, somewhat like the Rushing of Wind. It was very sensibly felt by those on Ship-board in the Harbour, as also by the Inhabitants of Port-Royal, Leguanea, and other adjacent Places. The eldest Inhabitants do not recollect so severe a One since the great Earthquake in June 1692, which destroyed Port Royal. However, we thank God, this has done no Mischief, that we have as yet heard of.

BOSTON.

March 4. By a Vessel from Annapolis-Royal, and another from Halifax, we have Advice, that our Troops at Chinecto were in perfect Health and high Spirits;——that they had such exceeding fine Weather, that all the Rivers and Creeks were open; and that the French Commander's Valet de Chambre, with 2 German Soldiers, had deserted to our Troops and all agree, that the French and Indians are in great want of Provisions and Liquor.——They also inform, that the French Missionary among the Indians, bribed them to murder the brave Capt. How in the infamous Manner they did, and that he punctually pays them 50 Livres for every Scalp, 100 for every Prisoner, and 400 for every Officer they bring in of ours.—— That to prevent these Deserters from returning, or giving any Intelligence to the Enemy, Col. Lawrence had prudently sent them to Annapolis by Capt. Gobb.

We hear from Kittery, that on Friday Morning last died there, after a short Illness, ANDREW PEPPERRELL, Esq; only Son to Sir WILLIAM PEPPERRELL, Bart.

South Kingston, in the Colony of Rhode Island, February 26.

On Saturday last was discovered in a Creek or Cove some Distance from the High-way, a dead Man, strip naked, having two Wounds in his Breast and one in his Neck, supposed to be made with a Hanger, and other Marks of Violence on his Body. The Coroner's Inquest brought in Wilful Murder against one Thomas Carter, who says he was born in Virginia, and married a Wife in Newport about Eighteen Months past: The Deceased appears to be one William Jackson, and to have come from Virginia with Deers Leather, and fell in Company with Carter upon the Road; had with him the Day before the Murder a Quantity of Silver and Paper Money, a Silver Watch, and a Hanger with a rough Back, like a Saw (Part of which was found by the Body) wore a red Great Coat, a Snuff-coloured Waistcoat, and Wash-Leather Breeches.

NEW-YORK.

February 25. This City has continued to be infested with Pillages and Robberies for some Time past; and one Day last Week a Woman having privately got into a House near the Fly Market, had made up two Bundles of the best Things she could find in the House, which were considerable, and in the Evening was making off; but happily the Street Door being shut, she made a Noise in endeavouring to open it; which brought the Woman of the House to the Door: The Thief had laid down the Bundles, and the Mistress being surprized, opened the Door, by which Means she escaped, but without the Booty, and by the Manner of their being done up, 'tis thought she must have lain concealed in the House several Hours.

And on Thursday last, some Persons who had lost sundry Things, having got Intelligence, that one Elizabeth Herbert, a suspected Person, who came from Philadelphia, with a Man at whose House she lodged here, had gone off in a Boat with some Bundles for New Brunswick: They got a Pettiauger and went after them: They came up with the Boat near Elizabeth-Town Point, and on searching the Bundles, found most of the Things they had miss'd; whereupon they brought them both back, and committed them to Goal:——They have been since examin'd, and the Proof seems full against them. This Woman was tried here but a few Weeks ago for stealing, and would have been then burnt in the Hand, but was begg'd off: There appears to be a Gang of them, tho' it is supposed these two are the Chiefs; and 'tis hoped will meet with the Reward their Merits deserve: There is a Piece of blue and white Handkerchiefs found among the Goods supposed to be stolen, for which no Owner has yet appeared, and sundry other Goods.

March 4. We have Advice from Jamaica, of the Loss of the Ship Dragon, Capt. Nicoll, of this Port, upon Portland Keys:—We hear this Ship had but 10 Days Passage from this Place to Jamaica, and after staying there 5 Days, sail'd from thence in the Morning for the Bay, and in the Evening unhappily run on the Key as above: The Men and Cargo are saved.

March 12. Capt. Carlile, who arrived here last Thursday from Barbadoes, having broke his Bloom soon after he sail'd, was oblig'd to put into Antigua to refit; and informs us, That just as he sail'd from Antigua, a Brig bound from that Place to Philadelphia, belonging to Ireland, came in there, after being 8 Weeks at Sea, and beat off from our Coasts.

The same Day arrived here the Snow Henry, Capt. Robbins, from Bristol, from whence she sail'd last Fall; but meeting with bad Weather on our Coasts, was obliged to go to the West-Indies to recruit, and wait for a favorable Season.

WILLIAMSBURG, March 7.

We have Advice, that the Crew of a Ship bound from Liverpool, to North-Carolina, joined by some Convicts on board, rose on the Captain and Mate, and having confined them, cut the Sails and Rigging to Pieces, and afterwards leaving the Ship in that Condition, got ashore in North-Carolina. Two of them travelled from thence to Norfolk, and passed for Captain, Mate, and Boatswain of a Ship cast away on Cape Hatteras. A Vessel from Boston, came up with the Ship after they left her, releas'd the Captain and Mate, and brought her into North-Carolina. A Hue and Cry being issued by Governor Johnston for apprehending the Villains, four of them were taken in that Province, and two of them at Norfolk, and as there is strict Search making after the rest, we have good Reason to believe they will be all soon apprehended and brought to Justice.

ANNAPOLIS.

Last Friday, as a Gentleman was riding near a Mine Bank in Baltimore County, he heard the groaning of some Dog out of the Road, upon which he rode aside to see what was the matter, where he was much surprized to find there a Carcase of a Man, which was naked, and appear'd as if it had either been buried in Clay, or lain in a puddle of Water. The Coroner immediately summon'd a Jury of Inquest, who found in their Verdict Wilful Murder. The Person Murdered is supposed to be an Overseer of Mr. William Digges's, who went up to Cecil County about the Middle of February last, driving down a Convict Servant, who had run away from his Master, and was taken up there and confined in Prison; and when he left him down as far as Baltimore-Town on Sunday Sevenight, where they lodg'd that Night, and the next Morning he set out thence to proceed homeward: And it is supposed that as he was in his Way, and got into the Mine Bank Road, where the Villain Murder'd and Stripp'd him. It was remark'd that the Overseer, all the way on the Road, treated his Prisoner with humanity. We since hear, that the Murderer is taken up and committed again to Goal in Cecil County; but we fear it is not true.

We are informed from many Places, that the Caterpillars appear already in vast numbers; and in some Places the Locusts have been found in great plenty, just under the surface of the Earth, almost at their full growth. May God avert our impending Calamities.

In several Northern Papers, we find the following Article under London, Dec. 22. viz. "The Chapteak, Barnes from Maryland to Liverpool, is lost near Waterford, but the Crew is saved."

ADVERTISEMENTS.

WHEREAS there was, on or about the first Day of January last, an horrid Murder committed on the Body of William Jackson, supposed to come from some Part of Virginia, and had with him a Quantity of Deer's Leather; and on View of the Body, the Coroner's Inquest brought in Wilful Murder against one Thomas Carter, who is also said to be a Virginian) and is now confin'd in his Majesty's Goal in South Kingston, in the Colony of Rhode-Island, and is to have his Tryal (if not put off longer) the first Tuesday in April next: THESE are therefore to desire all his Majesty's liege Subjects, to be aiding in giving Notice to the Relations of the said Deceased, in order that some of them may appear at the Tryal, to give Evidence to some Goods (if they have any Knowlege of them) found on said Carter, and presumed to belong to said Jackson, being marked W. J. and to secure what Effects are, or may be found, that belong'd to the said Deceas'd. Given under my Hand in South Kingston, this 9th Day of March, in the 24th Year of his Majesty's Reign, Anno Domini 1750[1].
